

Translations:Dimensionner une installation photovoltaïque autonome/206/en

---

In any case, if you use lead batteries, use a regulator to avoid to keep on charging your fully charged batteries (risks of hydrogen production) -or if you don't use batteries, size very carefully-, avoid profound discharges, and maintain your batteries at a constant temperature as much as possible