

Translations: Monter une Communauté Locale/20/en-gb

When setting up a local community, you will be lead to answer many questions on your project and low-techs. It is always a good idea to get information beforehand in order to fully understand the issues at stake and to put your vision and ideas on paper in order to share them more easily.