Translations:Monter une Communauté Locale/73/en-gb

If you haven't already done so, it's time to come and talk to others about your community, to share your successes, your failures, your technical, administrative and economic questions... Others have perhaps already experienced or are experiencing the same thing, and would be delighted to work with you through these issues!